

4th Grade-5th Grade Summer Reading

For your summer reading assignment this year everyone will be reading the book called Insignificant Events in the Life of a Cactus by Dusti Bowling. Everyone received a copy of the book today. You will be focusing on the protagonist, setting, conflict, and resolution of the story. Read the directions on each pennant and complete. I have provided a rubric for you to use in order to complete the pennants. Please let me know if you have any questions. This assignments is due the first day of school, August 24th, 2026.

25 Points available

_____ Completed according to the written instructions on the pennants. (12pts.)

_____ Attractive color scheme with no white spaces. (1pt.)

_____ All text is legible and dark. The final text should be written permanent marker. (1pt.)

_____ Use appropriate images that are either drawn or cut out. (2pts.)

_____ Securely glue the pennants to reinforced back such as construction paper, poster board, or card stock. (1pt.)

_____ Grammar and spelling should be correct. (3pts.)

_____ Name, date, and class on the back of the final product. (2pts.)

_____ Quality of work reflects knowledge and understanding of the protagonist, setting, and the conflict and resolution. (3pts.)

_____ Points Earned

Name _____ Date _____